

HB • £17.99

Publication date:

October 5th 2009

THE BILL'S PC TONY STAMP

GRAHAM COLE

ON THE BEAT: MY STORY

Britain's longest serving television policeman reveals the inside story of his life in The Bill.

- Graham reveals the full story of his amazing 25 years as The Bill's PC Tony Stamp and the ups, downs, triumphs and tragedies during that time.
- In this witty and candid memoir he tells how he went from playing monsters as an extra in Doctor Who to becoming Britain's most realistic screen copper.
- Packed full of secrets and fascinating behind-the-scenes details about one of British TV's most popular series.
- Amazing, never before seen personal photographs.
- He also reveals his true feelings at his departure from The Bill after a quarter of a century and his hopes for the future.

On The Beat: My Story by Graham Cole will be published by Splendid Books on October 5th 2009 priced £17.99.

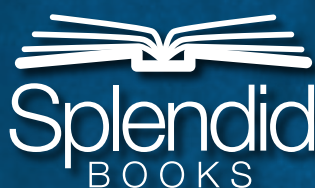

It will be available direct with free delivery from www.splendidbooks.co.uk or by phoning 0845 625 3045 and from all good bookshops.

Personally autographed copies will be available from www.splendidbooks.co.uk - with free delivery

Media Opportunities

- Extract rights are available as are photographs from Graham's private collection.
- Graham is available for press interviews
- Graham is available for television and radio interviews

For further details contact Steve Clark or Shoba Vazirani on 0845 625 3045 or email: press@splendidbooks.co.uk

Splendid Books Limited, PO Box 813,
Portsmouth, Hampshire, PO1 9EY

0845 625 3045 | info@splendidbooks.co.uk

www.splendidbooks.co.uk